

K-Love is the only Christian music station available to me in my community. If it is replaced by a LPFM broadcaster offering different programming I would be unable to listen to christian music on my radio. Please keep K-Love accessible to my community. Thank you.